S.J. Quinney College of Law Pro Bono Initiative

What is the Pro Bono Initiative (PBI)?

- Founded in 2000, PBI is a volunteer program that allows JD students to work with attorneys to provide free legal consultations throughout Utah. In addition to being a valuable community resource, PBI allows students to build valuable lawyering skills including client counseling, legal research, and document drafting.

PBI's Mission

1. To showcase the professional responsibility of attorneys to provide pro bono legal services to those without access to the justice system
2. To provide critical legal opportunities to law students under the supervision of attorneys
3. To develop placements where S.J. Quinney alumni can volunteer, network, and serve as mentors to current students

Additional information about PBI can be found on their website.
