This Giving Day, we invite you to support Utah Law scholarships to help us welcome in more of the best students regardless of their financial status. Your gift to support scholarships for students at the S.J. Quinney College of Law will be doubled thanks to a generous matching challenge from the I.J. & Jeanné Wagner Foundation.

Providing the best possible scholarship packages to our students is crucial to the continued success of the College of Law and is central to our values of accessibility, supporting public interest, and ensuring excellence.

Scholarships Provide Access to Underrepresented Students

As the only public law school in Utah, Utah Law is committed to creating a community where those who have the capacity to be successful in the legal profession have the opportunity to do so. Scholarships enable us to attract and retain excellent students regardless of their financial situation. This ensures a pool of robust, diverse and dynamic legal experts enter the profession and our communities.

Scholarships Support Public Interest

We want all Utah Law graduates to make career decisions that afford them the greatest satisfaction and fulfill their desires to contribute to their communities – not based on what job will repay their debt most quickly. Reducing students' debt burden through scholarships not only ensures more alums are able to commit to careers in public interest and volunteer pro bono work, but also improves their mental health and well-being.

Scholarships Ensure Excellence

Competitive scholarships allow us to attract and retain exceptional law students, and having law school classes with high median undergraduate GPAs and LSAT scores leads to a higher national ranking in U.S. News. Given many employers consider law school rankings when making hiring decisions, increasing our rankings increases the value of a Utah Law degree for all alumni.
